Thanks to the usual crew of volunteers who have volunteered their time and boats.

We have not had a huge uptake of families taking advantage of the free 1 year social membership and of those who signed up, not all can make it each week.

There is room for more guests to come out on the boats and I have advised Captains they may invite anyone who meets the definition of a friend or regular crew ( i.e. not a passenger) to join us on Monday nights in June.

Most enjoyed some refreshments on the deck after sailing on Monday night.

It is great to see boats leaving the docks on Monday Nights.
