Support the Guardian Marine Rescue– Donations Welcome!

Eric McCort is encouraging CIYC members to consider making extra donations of bottles and beer cans this year. They can be placed in the large blue container located at the east end of the porch.

Alternatively, you can also make a donation to support *The Guardian, docked at Colchester Harbour.

For more information or to contribute, please contact Eric at ericmccort@hotmail.com.

Every little bit helps – thank you for your support!

We're back, and ready to respond!

The Guardian is officially in the water and back in service for another season of marine search and rescue! Our crew is standing by—trained, equipped, and ready to answer the call day or night, calm or storm.

Boating season is here, and so is your local volunteer marine rescue team!

In case of a marine emergency:

Contact Canadian Coast Guard Radio on VHF Channel 16 or dial *16 on your cell phone.

Stay safe, boat smart, and keep an eye out for us on the water—we'll be out there all season long!
